

“It’s OK to Ask Me About HPV.”

Let’s talk openly— for your health.

What You Might Not Know:

- HPV can affect everyone regardless of gender, age, or orientation.
- Some strains of HPV are linked to anal cancer.
- Symptoms like rectal bleeding, itching, or pain? Not everything that bleeds is a hemorrhoid.
- Talking about HPV helps us catch changes early, before they become serious.

Start the conversation with your GI provider today.

Your questions matter.
Your voice matters.
Early awareness saves lives.

